Wilmington	1	0	1

Played pretty well tonight. We actually didn't play as well as I would have liked, but we were able to score goals. We were able to put a couple goals in off of corner kicks to headers which was nice to see. Focus for tonight's game was shooting from distance and we accomplished that. Good to get a solid win after a rough week last week. Adrian Cervantes was the man of the match with 2 goals and 4 assists.
