Coaches Comments:

The lady Reapers have some work to do in order to turn their season around. Today, they lost two games against Newark. The offense, defense, and pitching were not at the level they need and should be at two weeks into the season. For both games Newark out hit and out played Plano limiting errors and extra bases. The reapers recorded 8 hits during both games including hits from Kayley Glover, Jasmine Willis, Maddie Doss, Angie Rios, and Kenzie Brown.

Next week the Reapers will play their first conference game against Wilmington on Thursday. They also play Hampshire home Tuesday and Serena home Wednesday.
