The Plano Reapers broke a long spell of matches without a win at home against the Sandwich Indians. The Reapers were missing center back Ricky Montoya and right back Carlos Duarte, but played through adversity. Brian Clemen 11 scored his first varsity career goal placing a loose ball on the right side of the net at about 22 minutes into the game. Erik Nevarez 11 also scored his first career goal floating a ball along the endline into the side netting. The Reapers led 2-0 at half. Sean Knispel, Estevan Cervantes, and AJ Carranza combined for the shutout. Knispel collided with a Sandwich forward, and had to come out of the net. Cervantes kept the clean sheet, before returning to the field and allowing Carranza the rest of the game. Leo Amezcuita and Alexis Alamos forced the Sandwich to continually adjust to their play, while Cervantes made runs out of the back. The Reapers improve to 1-17-1.
